

Brides

FROM THE PUBLISHER OF | BRIDES | Modern Bride

Northern California

YOUR GUIDE TO NO CAL
WEDDINGS

FRESH IDEAS

and the vendors who make them happen

GOWNS THAT FLATTER
YOUR FIGURE

NEW COLOR SCHEMES
and the elements to bring them to life

107
RECEPTION SITES

Brides.com | YOUR #1 SOURCE FOR WEDDING IDEAS

DAWN PINCOCK

marries

JAMES HEALY

January 21, 2006
James Leary Flood Mansion
San Francisco

This elegant, evening reception, with its gray and pistachio color scheme, was still perfectly tailored to kids, thanks to event designer Sasha Souza.

photographed
by

SHERMAN CHU PHOTOGRAPHY
shermanchu.com

► "We chose the Flood Mansion [415-563-2900; floodmansion.org] because we had a lot of out-of-town guests, and the views of the Golden Gate Bridge gave it a very San Francisco feel," says Dawn. Floral centerpieces by Leah Lowery for Sasha Souza Events (707-253-8160; sasha-souzaevents.com). Chairs from Stuart Rental Company (408-856-3232; stuartrental.com)

► A second marriage for both, James' daughters, Madison (left) and Morgan (right), in satin A-line dresses from David's Bridal, were junior bridesmaids. James' eldest son, Weston, was best man, while his youngest son, Nathan (left) and Dawn's son, Tyler (right) were ringbearers.

► The cream and pistachio letterpress dinner menus, created by Dauphine Press (707-776-0790; dauphinepress.com), featured the couple's custom-designed monogram, which appeared throughout the wedding. Gurnmetal chargers from Stuart Rental Company.

► Hors d'oeuvres included these California-grown asparagus "straws," which were wrapped in delicate phyllo dough, dusted with Parmesan cheese, and served with a citrus crème fraîche. Catering by Alex's Catering (707-643-1711; alexscatering.com).

FOR MORE REAL WEDDINGS VISIT BRIDES.COM/NORTHERNCALIFORNIA