“Once you’ve agreed on some general guidelines, give your floral designer a little free rein,” says Lynda Dandeneau of Dandeneau Flowers. “It’s nice to walk into your event and be pleasantly surprised.”

LEFT, FROM TOP: ACCENT COLORS MAKE AN INVITATION POP. THIS TWO-LAYER, TWO-COLOR INVITATION SUITE DESIGNED AND LETTERPRESS-PRINTED BY DAUPHINE PRESS INTERTWINES UNIQUE SHADES WITH A CLASSIC DESIGN. AVAILABLE AT PARCHMENT FINE PAPERS. FEATHERY WHITE ASTILBE LENDS TEXTURAL INTEREST TO A BOUQUET THAT ALSO INCLUDES DOUBLE WHITE LISIANTHUS AND WHITE NICELLA, A PERFECT COMPLEMENT TO AN OFF-WHITE DRESS. DESIGNED BY DONA ROMA. BACKGROUND PHOTO: ALLISON LISET OF ELEGANT ENGAGEMENTS BRINGS A SENSE OF PLACE TO A DISPLAY OF ESCORT CARDS, USING CUTE POLKA-DOT RIBBON TO ATTACH THE CARDS TO DRIED STARFISH.
